

tribute to their teachers, and I think that it only correct that the Nebraska Legislature take time from their busy schedule to also commend and celebrate the excellent job that teachers are doing in our schools. We have specifically recognized in the resolution six teachers who were named 1988 school teachers of the year in Nebraska. They are Wilma Lund, Mary Dahlhauser, Virgie Luis, Kay Keiser, Carolyn Mitchell, and Sherrie Curtiss. Again, this resolution says, thank you, teachers, and keep on with the good work with our children.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is the adoption of the resolution. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 24 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: The resolution is adopted. We will move on to the proclamation. Senator Vard Johnson, please.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. President, I would move that you appoint an escort committee to escort the Governor to the Legislative Chamber.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. It is approved. The committee will be Senator Jackie Smith, Senator Morehead, Senator Scott Moore, Senator Howard Lamb, and Senator Shirley Marsh. Would you please go to the rear of the Chamber for the purpose of escorting the Governor to the podium. Thank you. Mr. Sergeant-at-Arms.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Mr. President, your committee escorting the Governor of Nebraska.

PRESIDENT: (Gavel.) Senator Jackie Smith, please.

SENATOR SMITH: Ladies and gentlemen of the Legislature, I have the honor this morning of presenting to you, Governor Kay Orr. Governor Orr is with us today, March 1, 1988, to share two events by proclamation, number one, Statehood Day of our beautiful State of Nebraska and, secondly, National Women's History Month. I give you Governor Orr.

GOVERNOR ORR: Thank you very much. Thank you. I would like to share with you the proclamation and then I have just a few brief
